WHO WE’VE HELPED!

At age 46, Lisa was diagnosed with stage IV Diffuse Large B Cell Lymphoma. This aggressive cancer was treated with chemotherapy and radiation before Lisa was admitted to a clinical trial in Seattle. This trial has given Lisa renewed hope for remission and can help her to make more precious memories with her family, friends, and two beloved rescue dogs.

Lianne was diagnosed at 37 with stage 2 breast cancer, treated with chemotherapy, double mastectomy, radiation and declared cancer free. At 39, her cancer returned as stage 4 with metastasis to her brain. She is now being treated with a novel clinical trial therapy in Boston that can provide more time with the people she loves.
